

EAST HILL CABINETRY

SINCE DESIGNING OVER ONE HUNDRED PROJECTS, EAST HILL CABINETRY IS PROUD TO CLAIM 100 PERCENT SATISFACTION FROM EVERY CLIENT.

Even in a tough economy, cabinet expert and East Hill Cabinetry owner Anthony Maucieri has managed to develop his business and become one of the most successful stories in kitchen and bath design over the past decade. In fact, the company's revenues have grown 2,600 percent since opening its doors in 2007. At the age of 26, and with a background steeped in cabinetry design and renovation, Maucieri has tapped into a need in Westchester homeowners who are seeking a kitchen and bath design firm with the highest level of service.

While every renovation is stressful, East Hill is devoted to minimizing the anxiety with its seamless process that bridges the gap between design and construction. Maucieri's ability to understand, relate, and appropriately react to his clients' demands comes from his many years of experience working with contractors. "I realized that there was a need in the marketplace for a different kind of renovation process," says Maucieri about his decision to open a full-service showroom in Briarcliff Manor. "At East Hill, clients receive personal service from a family business with a superb reputation and a complete dedication to customer satisfaction."

In addition to superior service and top-quality products, East Hill Cabinetry has recently launched The Hidden Hills Collection, an exclusive line of handcrafted, hand-joined custom cabinets. Every detail of the collection is custom-designed by East Hill Cabinetry and hand-built by Countryside Woodcraft, a team of Mennonite craftsmen and a family-owned business located in Massachusetts. To maintain the highest quality, The Hidden Hills Collection can only be created for eight kitchens per year, and are installed by the craftsmen who constructed them. "With a guaranteed lifetime warranty, our cabinets are designed like furniture, made to outlast generations with complete precision and careful attention to detail," adds Maucieri.
